Determined, young and positive youth following her dreams to become a Runway Model...

Aisha Robinson has always had an interest in the performing arts. She performed in numerous talent and fashion shows in middle school and high school. It was in 11th grade while Aisha was attending Hingham High School in Hingham, Massachusetts that she received the phone call that she had been waiting for. On the other end of the phone was an event coordinator from Newbury College that was interested in Aisha modeling in their annual fashion show. Aisha modeled on the runway and has been going full stream ahead since then. Aisha says that the key to her determination is keeping God first and staying positive in the midst of adversity.

About MINORT, Inc President/Founder 2

Board of Directors 2

MINORT, Inc Founder/President, Angie Robinson devoted her time to create FREE programs for ALL youth in the inner city

MINORT, Inc Founder/President, Angie Robinson noticed that the urban communities were lacking services for youth to help them to see outside of their present situation in order for them to be able to transition into a positive way of thinking. Angie decided to devote her time to develop free programs for all youth so that they could have a chance to experience a positive way of thinking and living in their communities.

Angie could not have established MINORT, Inc on her own without the spiritual guidance of her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ and the Board of Directors who worked hard to put the programs in place. Angie also thanks her spiritual father, Bishop George Bloomer for his prayers and words of wisdom.

Angie believes that no matter how bad the situation may seem, all youth can restore their lives so that they can walk down a positive path. Angie says in order for this to happen, we as adults must first take an interest in them and then guide them in a direction that is full of positive opportunities.

Angie is thankful that she had support from people who believed in and supported the vision of MINORT, Inc.
